Appeal — District :
Application No. — of 200
Writ petition

Office Notes, Office Memoranda of Coram, appearances, Court's orders of directions and Registrar's orders	Court's or Judge's Orders

CORAM : Smt. Vasanti A. Naik, J.
DATE : 20th June, 2007.

By this Civil Application, the applicant seeks permission to serve the respondent no.1 by substituted service.

It appears from the record that in spite of the best efforts of the appellant, the respondent no.1 could not be served. The bailiff report shows that the company does not exist on the address stated in the appeal memo. Thereafter this Court had permitted the appellant to affix the copy of summons on a conspicuous place near the last known address of the respondent no.1. Thereafter, this Court permitted the appellant to serve the respondent no.1 by Regd. Post Acknowledgment Due. The postal endorsement, however shows that the respondent no.1 Company has left the concerned place and the office of the Company is not located on the address given in the title clause.

In view of the aforesaid fact, it is necessary to permit the appellant to serve the respondent no.1 by publishing the notice in a local daily newspaper “Dhinakaran” which is widely circulated in Madras where the registered office of the respondent no.1 Company was last known to be located. The appellants are permitted to serve the respondent no.1 by publishing the notice in the daily newspaper “Dhinakaran” which is widely circulated in Madras. The appellant to take the necessary steps for publishing the notice within a period of three weeks from today.

The Civil Application is allowed on the aforesaid terms and disposed of.
